

Cynthia Ann Northam Wed To William Bidgood In Ecumenical Ceremony

Miss Cynthia Ann Northam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Northam, 30 Valley Terrace, Port Chester, was married July 4 to William E. Bidgood, of Rochester, N. Y. in an ecumenical ceremony at Corpus Christi Church, Port Chester, with Rev. Peter M. Rinaldi, pastor of the church and Rev. Frederick Mech of the United Methodist Church of Rye performing the ceremony. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schmidt, 210 Central Ave.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the Post Lodge in Larchmont.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white silk organza with a high victorian neckline, long bishop sleeves, fitted empire bodice, a lime skirt ending in a removable chapel length train, trimmed with venice lace daisies. Her headpiece was a crown of venice daisies and shoulder length French silk illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white and yellow daisies.

Miss Martha Northam was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a formal length gown of dotted Swiss roile, the color maize and the headpiece of matching bows with trimmers trimmed with daisies. She carried a basket of yellow daisies. The bridesmaids who carried baskets of white and yellow daisies wore gowns and headpieces of the same description as the maid of honor. They were Mrs. Robert Connelly, Jamestown, N. Y., sister of groom; Miss Patricia Brady, Port Chester; Miss Marjorie Morrison, East Meadows, N. Y.; Miss Kimberly Guinta, cousin of the bride, Port Chester; Miss Lisa Schmidt, Rye, who was junior bridesmaid.

Miss Celta Meloni was organist and Mrs. Ann Bell, soloist.

Best man for his brother was Frederick Bidgood of Rye. Ushers were Earl Lewis, Pittsburgh, Pa.;

Mrs. William E. Bidgood

James Schmidt, Rye, brother of the groom; George W. Northam, Port Chester, brother of the bride; Edward Hovey, Ardsley.

Mrs. Bidgood is a graduate of Port Chester High School and Westchester School of Nursing, Valhalla in 1970. A member of the American Nurses Association, she is employed at Strong Memorial Hospital, Rochester, N. Y.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Rye High School and Clarkson College of Technology in 1966. He served as a first lieutenant in the Army Engineers and was commanding officer of a hydrographic survey team. He is employed by the Taylor Instrument Company of Rochester.

Following a wedding trip to upper New York State, the couple will reside in Holly, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Mertz had as house guests several junior sailors from Oyster Bay who competed in Larchmont Race Week.
