

Katherine Keyes Married To Glenn Nickolas Tri In Christ's Church, Rye

Christ's Episcopal Church was the setting last Saturday for the marriage of Katherine Louise Keyes and Glenn Nickolas Tri of Eugene, Oregon. The Reverend Wendell Phillips performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Keyes, Jr. of Rye. Mr. Keyes is a retired senior vice president of Clyne, Maxon Advertising Agency and was formerly president of Adams & Keyes Inc. of New York. He served for ten years on the Rye City Council. She is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. Donald Dallas. He was chairman of the board of Revere Copper and Brass Inc. Her paternal grand-parents were the late Dr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Keyes of Rye and New York.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tri of Hillsboro, Oregon and is a direct descendent of William Bradford, a Governor of the Plymouth Colony.

Miss Nancy Keyes, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bride was also attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald D. Keyes of Columbus, Ohio and by Mrs. David Schellhase of Lafayette, Ind. The bride's niece, Jennifer Keyes, was flower-girl.

Dr. Terry B. Tri of San Francisco was best man for his brother. Ushers were Donald D. Keyes and Thomas Walthers.

Mrs. Tri was graduated from the American School in Lugano, Switzerland, Mt. Vernon Junior College and the University of Wisconsin. She made her debut at the Westchester Cotillion in 1964. She is presently an administrative assistant in the Association of American Medical Colleges in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Tri received his B.S. from Willamette University, his M.A. from Northwestern University and is a Ph.D. candidate in Political Science at the University of Oregon. He served with the United States Army in Vietnam.

Mrs. Glenn N. Tri

Barbara Foley Bride Of Dr. James Anthony Dyer In Newport, R. I. Chapel

Miss Barbara Elizabeth Foley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Foley, of South Bend, Ind., was married June 10 in the Chapel-by-the-Sea, Newport, R. I., to Dr. James Anthony Dyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dyer, 474 Milton Road. The Rev. Bernard J. Lamond performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Officers' Club, Newport Naval Base.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, had Miss Pamela Sue Reddy, of Cherry Hill, N. J. as her maid of honor.

Robert Dyer, of Rye, was best man for his brother. Dr. Jerome Petrisko, Quantico, Va., and Robert Cox, W. Newton, Mass, were ushers.

The bride is a graduate of John Adams High School, St. Mary's College and South Bend Medical Foundation School of Medical Technology.

Dr. Dyer, who is serving as a Lieutenant in the Naval Dental Corps aboard the USS Puget Sound, is a graduate of Archbishop Stepinac High, College of the Holy Cross and the University of Pennsylvania School of Dental Medicine. He is a member of Delta Sigma Delta dental fraternity and the American Dental Association.

The couple are residing in Newport, R. I.

Miss Cathy Beaman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Beaman of Eldredge Place, is attending the Rhode Island School of Design in Providence for a summer workshop in art. She was graduated recently from Rye High School. Her brother, John, has left for Camp Sloane in Lakeville, Conn., where he will spend the month of July. Their sister, Miss Patty Beaman, will spend the month visiting with friends in Los Angeles, Calif.

Professor Richard S. Bowman of Grandview Avenue has just returned from the West Coast where he spent ten days. He attended a meeting in San Diego, Calif., and visited with relatives in San Jose and with his father, Dr. Karl M. Bowman in San Francisco. Professor Bowman also visited with Mr. and Mrs. John True of Ross, Calif., formerly of Rye.

Mrs. James A. Dyer

Vacationed In England

Mr. and Mrs. Rolff E. Campbell of Glen Oaks Drive recently returned after a three week vacation in England. They spent one week in London and then took an eleven day tour of the country. They went up the East Coast to Edinburgh and then returned by way of the West Coast, stopping at Stratford-on-Avon. Following that the Campbells spent several more days in London. One of the highlights of the trip was seeing Queen Elizabeth at the Trooping The Color, in honor of her birthday.

Studying In France

Miss Joan Albert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Albert of Boulder Road, is attending the summer session at the Institute for American Universities in Aix-en-Provence, France. Before starting her studies, she visited with family friends in England, Denmark, and Paris. She plans to visit Rome before returning home around the middle of August. In the fall Miss Albert will return to Georgetown University for her senior year.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fleming and Lord Wyfold, all of London, will spend the weekend visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher M. Brown of Forest Avenue.

Retired Teacher Honored

A reception was held on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Martha Estep, who retired this year from the Mamaroneck School system. About 40 guests were present at the home of Mrs. Ronald Macdonald of Hunt Place, who was hostess. Decorations were on a Hawaiian theme and orchid leis for the guests were flown in from Hawaii. Miss Estep was presented with a memory book, including photographs from past years.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo L. Kornfeld of Turf Avenue and daughter, Nancy, spent the Fourth of July weekend at their home in Wilmington, Vt. They visited with their daughter, Miss Melanie Kornfeld of West Halifax, Vt., and attended the Bennington Northeast Crafts Festival, at which Miss Kornfeld exhibited her hand-made candles.

Mrs. Ben Scott Custer of Loudon Woods has just returned from Reno, Nevada, where she spent about two weeks. While there she attended the wedding of her brother, Robert Ziemer Hawkins, of Reno, to Mrs. Kathryn Hatcher of La Jolla, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. B. Scott Custer, Jr., and children and Miss Carson Custer, all of Washington, D.C., spent the Fourth of July weekend visiting with their parents. They were joined by Miss Penelope Custer of New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ament of Milton Road and children, Debra, Charles, and Jennifer, have returned after a week's vacation in Maine where they visited Ogunquit and Boothbay Harbor. They were accompanied by Mr. Ament's mother, Mrs. Glick Schultz of Mentor, Ohio.

SURPLUS JEWELRY? ANTIQUE SILVER?

Sell Discreetly for Cash

Our appraiser will buy Old Silver, Diamonds, Antiques, Gold Jewelry, Art Objects, Paintings, Bric-a-brac, etc.

"Confidential Consultation"

RAYMOND ANTIQUES

10 So. Moger Ave., Mount Kisco MO 6-9395

to make every occasion something "special"

Our Stylists will help you select beautiful flowers for any occasion. For the next celebration, order lovely cut flowers.

More than 50 Years of Dependable Service

Moraino Bros
FLOWERS

64 Purchase St.

WO 7-4300

WATER WATER WATER
water in your Basement?

4 WAY WATERPROOFING

Our four methods have proven so good if we do not solve your problem we will do it again free or give your money back.

Write for Brochure or Call for FREE ESTIMATE 939-2990

Juniper Hill Waterproofing Co.
11 Jean Lane
Port Chester, N. Y.

Fantastic Sale

needlepoint up to 50% off

38 Elm Place
Rye, N. Y.

115 Mason St.
Greenwich, Conn