

Christmas Sing-Along Being Held Monday At Osborn Memorial Home

A gala gathering is planned for Monday, Dec. 23 at 7 p.m. in the range of Osborn Memorial Home. There will be five parts to the program and traditional carols, "The First Noel," "Joy to the World," "Oh Come All Ye Faithful" etc. will be sung in unison. Comments on each carol will be made by Ellis Chadbourne who with Mrs. Chadbourne will direct the program.

Mrs. Chadbourne will sing "Silent Night, Holy Night" in the original German and Mr. Chadbourne will lead in the singing of some popular Christmas songs such as "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas," and "A Winter Wonderland,"

"The Night Before Christmas," the beloved poem by Clement Moore, will be read by one of the residents. Various Christmas customs like Mistletoe, The Creche, Holly and Poinsettia, Santa Claus will be explained.

"The Christmas Story" from the Gospel according to St. Luke will be presented. Mr. Chadbourne will set the stage for this gala event with the famed "O Holy Night" by Adams.

New Books In Rental Library Collection

The Rye Free Reading Room has added to its rental collection Helen Hayes "On Reflection," and more copies of Helen MacInnes' "The Salzburg Connection." Miss Hayes in her preface says the book tells about "What it was like to be me... to live in such exciting times and know so many of the men and women who made it so."

Other popular volumes in the rental collection are Le Carre's "A Small Town in Germany," "The Couples" by Updike and "Floating Island" by Kimbrough.

The rental collection was inaugurated in November to satisfy the demand of those who want books on the best seller list more quickly than the library's non-rental copies can supply. The fee is 10c a day with a minimum of 30c.

Court Resurrection Greet Monsignor on Birthday

Court Resurrection #891 celebrated doubly at the party following its monthly meeting at the Parish Hall. Mrs. Nick Muzillo and Mrs. A. J. Chiodi were co-chairman of the Christmas party.

Choristers holding lighted candles sang beautiful carols, accompanied by Mrs. Ramon Vales on the piano. Finale was the greeting to The Rt. Rev. Monsignor J. D. McGowan, chaplain of the Court, who was 76 years old on that day.

An inviting holiday party-spread of salads, sandwiches and many kinds of cakes and Christmas cookies was enjoyed by all the members and guests. Santa Claus distributed gifts to everyone there and all members brought gifts to be distributed by the Sisters at Mariandale to their patients at Christmas time.
