

Nephew And Uncle Have Reunion In Viet Nam

SP/4 Leslie Gedney had no idea he would see a member of his family soon after arriving in Viet Nam, but he did. The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gedney of 23 Rosemere Street left on October 28 from the U.S.A. after taking basic training in Fort Gordon, Ga., and the missile school at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Soon after arriving he received word that his uncle, Capt. Charles Gedney of the U.S. President Lines was in port in Viet Nam and he set out to look him up. It took a lot of searching but he found Uncle Chuck and they spent a full day together.

Capt. Gedney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Leslie Gedney of Grapal Street.

These Must Be Ordered Early

Forgive us, please, if we seem to be crowding the season. It's simply that certain things for Christmas just have to be ordered in advance. You will benefit by doing so.

First, of course, are Christmas cards. Our selection, as wide as any you will find in this area, includes all the best names: Tiber Press, Shosha, Looart, George Caspari, Carol Editions, Ltd., and American Artists. We'll gladly lend you overnight any album you'd like to borrow — and pick it up with your order the next morning.

Then, there's a whole category of highly desirable gifts whose early ordering is essential: personalized stationary, initialed playing cards, monogrammed glassware, cocktail napkins, note paper and dozens of related items that people love to receive and, more often than not, never think to buy for themselves.

If you haven't ordered your cards yet, or plan to give anything personalized or monogrammed, please don't postpone it another day. And if you haven't received our new gift catalog, please say the word and we'll rush one to you. It may simplify or solve every last "difficult" gift choice you have to make. Cordially . . .
