

Joe McDonald Memorial Plans

PLANS, renderings, and specifications for a memorial addition to the Rye Recreation Park Field House have been donated to the Joe McDonald Fund by Rye architect Robert W. Crozier. The addition, to consist of the area to the right of the center door, will serve as a memorial to the late Rye Patrolman Joseph M. McDonald. To date nearly 250 donations have been received from school children, adults, merchants, service, public and private organizations swelling the total now on hand to $3479, according to Harold Clayton, treasurer. The most recent donation was received from the staff of the Rye Post Office who stated in their letter that "We all considered Joe a good and true friend, and are pleased to be able to play a small part in perpetuating his memory." The Fund Committee is under the chairmanship of Karl Benson and the project will get underway the moment the goal of $5000 is reached.

Rye Men Receive Awards At Sailing Class Dinner

William E. John, Jr., of Rye, and Cornelius "Glit" Shields, Jr., of Larchmont, were recipients of major awards at the annual dinner of the International One-Design Class held at the American Yacht Club.

More than 100 guests were on hand for the 27th annual presentations. John was honored for his victories in the 1963 Season Championship and Yacht Racing Association competition, while Shields received the 1963 World Championship award. Regatta Week awards were won by Harvey Conover, Jr., of Mamaroneck, and Vincent Learson, of Rye, for their triumphs at Manhasset and Larchmont, respectively.

The presentations marked the second time John has won the Season and YRA championships. He had previously captured both honors in 1961. This year, Learson placed second in both and Shields third.

Starting Social Dance Course For Children

The Recreation Commission is sponsoring a children's social dance course for Rye children from 5th through 8th grades.

Ralph J. Damiano, superintendent of recreation, said "the prime object of starting with the 5th and 6th grade children is to install in them at this impressionable age habits of social courtesy toward adults and also other children. This has always been the practice in the best of private schools, and I feel that all youngsters in our society are in great need of this training."

The course will begin on Thursday, Dec. 5, and will be held at the Youth Recreation Center, 281 Midland Avenue. The 5th and 6th grade children's session will be held from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. and the 7th and 8th grade students from 4:45 to 5:45 p.m.

A nominal fee will be charged for the eight sessions including a party on the last session and refreshments served at each class. For further information contact the Recreation Commission Office weekdays.

Used Toys Needed For Santa Claus Workshop

Now is the time clean out your basement and garage and gather together all the used toys and games which need repair or a new coat of paint.

Each year the Rye Senior Citizens assist the Recreation Commission in this worthwhile activity. They dress dolls, paint old bicycles, sleds and toys and repair them.

Toys may be left at the Santa Claus Workshop at the Youth Recreation Center, 281 Midland Avenue, weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.
