OBITUARIES

MARY BREVOORT TOWLE

Funeral services were held Saturday in the chapel at the Miriam Osborn Memorial Home for Miss Brevoort Towle, 74, who died last Thursday at the Home after a long illness. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery, the Bronx.

A descendant of one of the oldest families in this area, Miss Towle was born June 10, 1895, and lived for many years in what she termed "the shanty" on the old Brevoort farm, in what is now the Greenhaven section of Rye.

In 1875, Henry Brevoort had divided his farm among his three daughters and their husbands and Miss Towle was the granddaughter of one of these three couples. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson Towle.

She was a daughter of the late Henry and Louise (Odell) Towle, and later in life lived at Chestnut Gardens, Rye, until her retirement.

Miss Towle was educated at the Manor School, Larchmont, and began her work at Rye Country Day School as a secretary in 1925. While there, she studied at and was graduated from the Bank Street School in New York City which specialized in kindergarten teacher-training.

She taught at the Rye Country Day School from 1941 until her retirement in 1959, and in 1960 entered the Osborn Home with her sister, Miss Alice Brevoort Towle, two years her senior, who survives her.

Other survivors include another sister, Mrs. Charles Ward, Tulsa, Okla., and two nieces, Mary Louise Crommett, East Hampton, L. I., and Cornelia Robinson, Knoxville, Tenn.

ROBERT L. BEALE, SR.

Robert L. Beale Sr., 80, died Monday afternoon at United Hospital. He formerly resided in Tama, Iowa, but for the last two years made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Robert (Betty) Makin of 10 Claremont Ave., Rye.

He was born Feb. 25, 1889 in Gilman, Iowa, son of the late Newton and Matilda Beale. Mr. Beale graduated from Northwestern University in 1911.

He was a grain dealer and business man until his retirement three years ago. A life-time member of the Tama Methodist Church in Iowa, he had been very active in civic affairs in the community. He was a 32nd degree Mason, a shiner and a Free and Accepted Mason for over 50 years.

Besides his daughter, he is survived by his wife Mrs. Gladys Beale, a son Robert L. Beale Jr. of Bellevue, Washington, and two granddaughters Melanie and Valerie Makin of Rye.

Memorial services were held today at 4 p.m. at the Rye Presbyterian Chapel.

Preparatory School, New Rochelle. He is a member of the Plebe basketball team.

Cadet Bradley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick A. Bradley of Stonycrest Road.

removal. He further stated that the crowded condition of the street would make it difficult for fire apparatus to get through in the event of a fire.

Both Stanley Martin and George Gleason, residents of the east side of the street told the council they favor the new regulation. Mr. Martin stated that there is only four feet of space between the pavement and the sidewalk in front of his house, consequently cars have parked on the walk and broken it. "I'm in favor of the restriction—the road is much too narrow for parking on both sides," he said.

Mr. Gleason told the Council that there is more room to park on the west side of the street. In endorsing the proposal, he said he felt the parking committee had done a terrific job.

After hearing residents of the apartment building speak against the proposal, Mayor Edmund C. Grainger, Jr. pointed out that even if the ordinance is adopted, it can be restudied at a later date.

The new ordinance provides for one-way traffic in a westerly direction on Elizabeth St. and prohibits parking on the north side of the street.

Business Section Changes

In an attempt to solve traffic congestion problems in the business section, the council agreed to limit parking to 15 minutes on the east side of Third St. from Purdy Ave. to the post office driveway, and on the west side of Third St. from Purdy Ave. westerly 100 feet. It also designated 15-minute parking on the north side of Purdy Ave. and on the east side of the post office to Third St.

The new ordinance eliminates parking on both sides of Purdy Ave. between Purchase St. and First St., on the south side of Purdy Ave. between School St. and Boston Post Rd.; on the north side of Purdy Ave. between Boston Post Rd. and the east side of the post office property and on the north side of Purdy Ave. from Third St. in a westerly direction for a distance of 50 feet.

Receiving Registrations By Rec. Dept. for Three Ski Trips to Silvermine

The Rye Recreation Department has announced that registration for the remaining three ski trips to Silvermine is now being accepted at the Rec Office. Fees include transportation, entry, lift tickets, group lessons and adult supervision. The dates are Feb. 8 and 15 and March 1.

They are all on Sundays and buses leave the Recreation Center at 7:30 a.m. and return about 5:30 p.m. Skiers may bring their own lunch or purchase it at the area.

Also ski buffs are reminded that reservations for the two day trip to Gore Mountain, Lake George and Whiteface Mountain, Lake Placid, two of New York's most famous ski areas, on Feb. 24 and 25 are now being accepted. Reservations must be made by Tuesday, Feb. 17.
