

Children's Blood Foundation Concert Benefit December 26

Richie Havens, the folk singer, will give a concert on Friday, Dec. 26 at 8:40 p.m. at the County Center, White Plains, for the benefit of the Westchester Division of the Children's Blood Foundation at New York Hospital. Mr. Havens, who has performed at Philharmonic Hall, Hunter College, Fillmore East has frequently been on television.

The honorary sponsors for the concert are Ogden R. Reid, Spyros Skouras, Max Berking and Dr. Carl Smith of New York Hospital. Mrs. Paul Jacobson, Rye is chairman of the benefit.

There is a junior committee headed by Mrs. Seymour Bernstein of Rye which includes high school and college students assisting in sales and promotion.

The Children's Blood Foundation at New York Hospital supports the Pediatric Hematology Center which is coordinated for the treatment and research of children's blood diseases such as leukemia, hemophilia, Cooley's anemia and chronic anemias.

Hi-Y Members Debate Issues In Capitol

On the weekend of Dec. 12-14, Larry Hazen and Gary Jansen of the A.C.E. Hi-Y went to the 34th Youth and Government program held at the State Capitol in Albany along with their advisor Robert B. Nelson, youth and program director of the Rye "Y".

The purpose of the program was to give the youth of New York State an insight into the workings of the State government. Hi-Y members from all over the State made up the House and Senate and debated the bills which originated in their local areas.

Larry Hazen presented his bill on relicensing of persons 65 and over before his fellow Senators. The bill was passed by an impressive 54 in favor to 1 opposed.

The highlight of the three-day conference was the keynote speech made by Paul O'Dwyer, recently announced candidate for U.S. Senator from New York. Mr. O'Dwyer spoke to a joint session of the House and Senate on Friday evening.

What's Your Pleasure This Christmas?

DECEMBER 26

*On the day after Christmas
And not at all strange,
Are the crowds flocking in
With their gifts to exchange*

*Their socks are too large;
Their ties are too bright;
Their slippers are wrong
Their shirts aren't right.*

*They have too many pencils;
Their books they have read;
Or have two of a kind
And wish something instead.*

*Now we have no gripe,
For we make a good living
From people who give
And keep giving and giving.*

*But if you are anxious
And eager to learn
How to give and be sure
Your gifts won't return.*

*For what it is worth
The suggestion is mine,
Nobody brings back
Their liquor or wine.*
