

Donald Seehusen And Claudia C. Keys Wed In Palo Alto, Calif.

Miss Claudia Catherine Keys of Palo Alto, Calif., daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Keys of Lincoln, Nebraska was married on May 18 to Donald Seehusen of Palo Alto, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Seehusen, 76 Glen Oaks Drive, Rye, at the First Methodist Church in Palo Alto. A reception followed at the Stanford University Club.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a semi-fitted gown of re-embroidered daisy lace with a silk organza train embroidered with matching lace. Her wax-flower headpiece, worn by her three sisters at their weddings, held a tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Alan Porter of Copperas Cove, Texas, was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a green silk crepe gown and carried yellow and white daisies. Her headpiece was a circlet of daisies. Miss Christine Neushul of Palo Alto, dressed like the matron of honor in a lighter shade of green, was bridesmaid.

Robert Seehusen of Rancho Cordova, Calif., was best man for his brother. Ushers were A-1/C Jack Seehusen stationed at Air Force Base, Wichita, Kansas, brother of the bridegroom; Kirk Knight and Glenn Mueller, both of Palo Alto.

The bride, a graduate of Nebraska University is a member of the Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae. She is a feature writer for the public relations department of the Pacific Telephone Co.

The bridegroom received a B.S. Civil Engineering degree from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y. and a M.S.C.E. degree from Stanford, Calif. University. He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He was a lieutenant in the submarine service of the U.S. Navy. He is a project manager with Wheatley-Jacobsen in Palo Alto.

After a honeymoon trip through Mexico, the couple will reside in Palo Alto.

Mrs. William Wachtler of Geneva, Switzerland, is spending the Memorial Day week end as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Heaney of Grace Church Street.
