OBITUARY

MRS. WILLIAM H. O'GRADY

A requiem mass was held Wednesday morning at the Church of the Resurrection for Mrs. Lillian Williams O'Grady, who died suddenly Saturday afternoon of a heart attack at her home, 7 Garden Drive. Mrs. O'Grady was 59 years old.

A resident of Rye for 18 years, she previously lived in Stamford where she was born Oct. 6, 1907. She was the daughter of the late Ernest and Margaret Pitterson Williams and the wife of William Henry O'Grady who died Nov. 19, 1953.

Mrs. O'Grady was an executive secretary for Technical Material Corp. in Mamaroneck where she had been employed for six years. She was a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy in Stamford and was a member of the Church of the Resurrection in Rye.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Judith Perry Greason of Rye; two sons, Crosby A. Perry IV of Hollywood, Fla., and Gil W. Perry of Rye; a brother, Douglas Williams of Stamford; two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Mossman of Stamford and Mrs. Frances Streyckmans of Phoenix, Ariz.; and five grandchildren.

State Back Leisure Time Activity For Elderly

Dr. James E. Allen, Jr., Commissioner of Education announced today that the State Education Department and the State Recreation Council for the Elderly had approved a program of leisure time activities for persons 60 years of age and older residing in the City of Rye. The city has allotted $1,813.72 for this purpose for the 1967-1968 fiscal year and will receive reimbursement in the amount of $550.25 in State Aid.

According to John A. Paulus, city manager, the program will consist of educational, social and cultural activities and will be conducted Wednesdays at 281 Midland Avenue.

Jimmy R. Adkins has been designated as the director of the program.

Weekend Golf Winners At The Apawamis Club

In golf at Apawamis on Saturday, Dick Todd and Tom Sheridan teamed up to win the better ball stroke play event with a net 62. Class "A" sweepstake winners went to Ed Bunker with 78-10, 68 followed by Todd 71-1, 70, George Chittenden 76-6, 70 and Bob Bjork 78-8, 70.

On Sunday the regular mixed foursome best ball medal play competition was won by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bjork who combined to produce a net 64. In the Class "A" sweeps the lone winner was Fred Williamson, 74-7, 67.

Ray Konopka playing with "Cotton" Dunn, assistant pro, and Frank Donahue at Winged Foot in Westchester Golf Assn. Pro-Am, scored a net 64 to tie for first place on Monday.

Winners Named In Recreation Day Camp Events

The wide open spaces at Rye Rec Park provided an ideal background for Wild West Day last Friday. Directed by leaders Helene Ralph, Ginger McCulloh, Steve Lawson, and Barbara Balls the kindergarten boys and girls participated in a hike on the "Oregon Trail," a marshmallow cook-out, parade and costume contest.

Winners of the costume contest were Bob Martin, the Most Authentic Cowboy; Debbie Sellstrom and Betsy Stanton, the Fanciest Cowgirls; Irwin Stringer, the "Fastest Draw in the East," Mark Lennon; the "Most Authentic Indian," and Mark Butler, "Best War Paint." Other winners of the event were Michelle Connolly, Steve Coshal, John Basso, Debbie Touri, Karen Storino, Jon Frost, Ronnie Boccardo.

The first grade boys and girls celebrated "Honor Grandmother and Grandfather Day" on Thursday, and the following winners were chosen by judges Dottie Uhle, Sue Stappers, David Rasmussen and Carla McKay for originality of costume and clarity of presentation.

A "Hobo Day" entertained the boys in the second and third grade group last week, and leaders Rosemary Smith, Tony Meeker, Peter Rubinger and Chris Bubbico selected winners Tony Coash, Tony Dillof, Tony Marinelli, David Mion, Paul Ranyak, Les Anderson, Anthony Castellano, Thomas Walsh, and Stephan Cozzi. "Circus Parade," directed by Dottie Webber, Margaret Mitchell, Trish Kohlasch featured a parade and skits, and the following winners were lauded: Joanne Ross, Kerry Doyle, Dana Burroughs, Madeline De Rose, Lisa Storino and Kathy Jager.

Leader Linda Lush, assisted by Terry Sloat and Lynn La Monica, conducted a film festival within her group of fourth and fifth grade girls. The campers dressed in costumes from various countries, and were photographed by the group leaders, who plan to show the slides next week. Winners of the film festival were Kendall Babbit, Lisa

Moore, Monnie Savage, June Walsh, Grace Kelly, and Susan Errigo.

Perhaps the most dramatic event of the past week was a full scale camp out held for fourth and fifth grade boys and Junior boys on Thursday night. Supervised by Frank Anechiarico, Marc Rubinger, Chris Crozier, Dennis Cole, John Tucci, Eric Naegel, more than sixty campers slept under the stars after an active evening.

Two Rye Men Awarded Marine Commissions

Marine 2nd Lieutenants S. Paul M. McGrath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McGrath of Park Drive, and Gordon B. M. Walker Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. M. Walker of 24 Brown Avenue, were commissioned officers in the U. S. Marine Corps at the Marine Corps School, Quantico, Va. upon graduation from Officer Candidate School.

They are now attending The Basic School, where they will be educated in the high standard of knowledge, esprit de corps, and leadership traditional to the Marine Corps. Particular emphasis is placed on the duties and responsibilities of the rifle platoon commander.

Upon graduation, students will receive orders for Marine Corps duty stations throughout the world.
