

Victoria Rogers Weds Earl Edward McEvoy In Resurrection Church

Miss Victoria Rogers and Earl Edward McEvoy were married Tuesday afternoon in the Church of the Resurrection. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James F. Rowane and the Rev. Dr. Wendell Phillips, Rector of Christ's Church, Rye, gave the blessing. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the Apawamis Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Van Dusen Rogers. Mr. Rogers is an attorney with the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. Mrs. McEvoy's paternal grandfather is Charles B. Rogers of New York City and her maternal grandmother is Mrs. A. Edward MacDougall of Rye.

The bridegroom is the ward and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Rafferty of Rye. Mr. Rafferty is a labor lawyer retired from the Union Carbide Company and owns the World Sport Store in Chappaqua. Mr. McEvoy's parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edward McEvoy of Pasadena, Calif.

Mrs. McEvoy wore a gown of ivory pure silk satin with a bodice of rose point chantilly lace and a mantilla of the same lace. She carried a bouquet of miniature white roses, stephanotis and variegated ivy.

Miss Lynne Rogers served as her sister's maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Van Dusen Rogers, also a sister of the bride, Miss Patti McDonald of Elizabeth, N. J., Miss Catherine Cheney and Miss Suzanne Hyde Lippincott of Rye.

Mr. McEvoy's best man was Charles O'Brien of Princeton, N. J. The ushers were Kenneth Rust Rafferty, James Rafferty, Ward Rafferty, Jr. and John Rafferty, cousins of the groom and Frederick Bolles Rogers, brother of the bride.

Mrs. McEvoy graduated from the Bishop's School in La Jolla, Calif. and Hofstra University and is currently a first year student at Harvard Medical School.

Mr. McEvoy graduated from Phillips Academy in Andover, Massachusetts and Dartmouth College. He plans to graduate from the Columbia School of Business Administration in May of 1972.

Robert Willett, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hathaway Willett of Elmwood Ave., has just completed boot training at Paris Island in South Carolina. He will be home for Christmas as will be his brother, H. T. Hathaway Willett, Jr. and his wife Karen of Balston Spa, N. Y.
